Knutsford Rugby Club

The Knutsford Rugby Club recognises that publicity and pictures of young people enjoying rugby are essential to promote the sport. The club recognises that on the whole young people enjoy their successes being acknowledged though publication of commentary and images that illustrate important events and matches.

Knutsford Rugby Club is committed to providing a safe and enjoyable environment for young people and implicit in this is that it is committed to ensure that all publications, resources and media represent participants appropriately and with respect.

Knutsford Rugby Club has adopted the RFU Best Practice Guidance to ensure the safe use of images of children and young people. This guidance comprises eight “golden rules” that strives to ensure compliance with RFU policy on photographic images (available at www.rfu.com).club will be called KNUTSFORD RUFC and will be affiliated to the RFU.

1. Knutsford Rugby Club will strive to ensure that parents/young people have granted their consent for the taking and publication of photographic images by signing the Parent/Guardian and Young Person Permission Form. This will be incorporated into the registration process and therefore completed and reaffirmed annually.
2. All young people must be appropriately dressed for the activity taking place.
3. Photography or recording should focus upon the activity taking place rather than a particular young person and personal details that could make a young person vulnerable should never be revealed.
4. Where an individual is singled out for their achievement in a game the club will ensure that permission has been gained to use their image and name.
5. Where possible the images/recordings will represent a range of young people participating in the game.
6. Anyone taking photographic images or making a recording at a rugby event must have a valid reason for doing so.

7. Anyone taking photographs or recording should make themselves known to the event organisers/persons in charge and be able to identify themselves if requested during the course of an event.
8. All concerns regarding inappropriate or intrusive photography should be reported in confidence to the RFU Child Protection Manager via Knutsford Rugby Club's Welfare Officer.
